The book you have chosen is permanently bound and cannot be changed once it has been made. Therefore, it is very important for your pictures to be in the correct sequence when you give us your order. The book is limited to 40 pages (80 sides). Many customers order two or three albums when more prints are desired. These can be set in a double or triple case made especially to match and fit your books.

_____ I am enclosing a wedding invitation for a separate introduction page.

These candid photographs will start on the right side. Please list the proof numbers in the numerical sequence the photographs are to appear in your album.

You have chosen the album which can be fun to organize, holds many pictures of different sizes, and will need great care in planning each page. Our sales people will be happy to assist you. Once you have decided on the sequence of your pictures, and the books are bound, there is no way we can change them. They are permanently bound. Therefore, we all must be very careful to plan them exactly as you wish them in the finished album.
